

GUIDELINES FOR NATIONAL REPORTS

The following format for preparation of the national report specified in Article 26 of the Convention was endorsed by the Conference of the Parties in its decision V/19.

It is a series of questions based on the Articles of the Convention and on those elements of decisions of the Conference of the Parties which are addressed to Contracting Parties. Responses to these questions will help Contracting Parties to review the extent to which they are successfully implementing the provisions of the Convention and will assist the Conference of the Parties to assess the overall status of implementation of the Convention. The wording of questions follows the wording of the Articles and Decisions as closely as possible. 1/

The questions are simple in nature in order to facilitate completion of the review. In most cases they require only a tick in one or more boxes.2/ Following each set of questions there is a box for further comments. Contracting Parties are invited to provide a more detailed response to the preceding questions at this point.3/ This is an opportunity to identify particular successes or constraints. In particular this box could be used to identify cases where the reporting of no action or of a partial fulfillment of the obligation is the result of inadequate resources or a need for assistance, rather than a decision not to take action on a particular obligation.

The information provided by Contracting Parties will not be used to rank performance or to otherwise compare implementation between individual Contracting Parties.

In order to assist with the review and synthesis of the information in the reports, respondents are asked to ensure that the further information provided in this box is closely related to the preceding questions and is as succinct as possible. There is no set limit on length, but it is anticipated that Parties will be able to provide adequate and useful information in a maximum of a page or two at each of these points.

1/ Please note that obligations implied or specified by some decisions have been omitted where they are duplications of obligations already in the Articles or in other decisions, or where the deadline for compliance is now passed and information on the action undertaken is no longer relevant.

2/ If you feel that, in order to properly reflect the circumstances, it is necessary to tick more than one box, please do so. In this case, you are encouraged to provide further information in the box at the end of the set of questions.

3/ Please feel free to append to the report further information on any of the questions.

There is an opportunity at the end of the document to communicate any issues relevant to implementation of the Convention that have not been addressed by the questions below. The Executive Secretary would also welcome any comments on the adequacy of the questions, and difficulties in completing the questions, and any further recommendations on how these reporting guidelines could be improved.

It is recommended that Contracting Parties involve a wide range of stakeholders in the compilation of information that is presented in the report, in order to ensure a participatory and transparent approach to its development. A box is provided in which to identify those groups who have been involved in these processes.

Contracting Parties are requested to submit their second national report in this format to the Executive Secretary by 15 May 2001. Parties are requested to submit an original signed copy by post and an electronic copy on diskette or by electronic mail. An electronic version of this document will be sent to all national focal points and this will also be available from the Convention's website at:

Please provide summary information on the process by which this report has been prepared, including information on the types of stakeholders who have been actively involved in its preparation and on material which was used as a basis for the report

In the framework of project "Development of National Biodiversity Strategy and Action Plan" in Bosnia and Herzegovina, which has been running since February 2006, gathered were some informations that are requested in this form. Informations are provided by national team members involved in the afore mentioned project. These are scientist, mainly university professors, from diverse field of science : ecology, zoology, botany, forestry, hydrology, geology, climatology, and representatives from referring ministries, including NGO's concerned by nature protection issues etc. Team members were divided into ... working groups of which each is in charge for collecting and summarizing informations on respected objectives. In the course of project prepared were, by each working group, several reports on working progress. These reports were a basis for answering to questions posed in this form. The rest of necessary informations was obtained through Third national report, which was submitted to the Secretary on 11th November 2005, and completed by more or less the same expert team and guidance of the same co-ordinator. Besides, Bosnia and Herzegovina has finished National Environmental Action Plan (NEAP) three years ago, which was an important contribution to the creation of adequate framework for the CBD implementation process. Thus, Second report is based upon national projects that have been running in Bosnia and Herzegovina for several years backwards and have been funded mainly from abroad.

Please provide information on any particular circumstances in your country that are relevant to understanding the answers to the questions in this report

By taking into consideration the report from Bosnia and Herzegovina (BiH), one should keep in mind specific political circumstance ruling here over the last ten years, more precisely since the "Dayton Agreement", by which was ended a civil war in BiH, was signed. According to afore mentioned Agreement, country is comprised of two major units called entities, Republic of Srpska (RS) and Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina (FBiH), and one small unit called District Brcko. Each of the units has its own government and ministries, including ministry of environment and physical planning. There isn't the Ministry at state's level in charge with environmental issues which represents one of the greatest obstacles to the process of implementation any international convention, including CBD. Emerging problems could be summarized as follows :

- Uneffective institutional framework which is major obstacle to a decision-making process and implementation on the international scale
- Lack of integrated information system on biodiversity objectives
- Lack of cooperation between relevant institutions in RS and FBiH
- Uneven level of implementation of international directives in RS and FBiH

The COP has established programmes of work that respond to a number of Articles. Please identify the relative priority accorded to each theme and the adequacy of resources. This will allow subsequent information on implementation of each Article to be put into context. There are other questions on implementation of the programmes of work at the end of these guidelines.

Further comments on work programmes and priorities

Inland waterbodies are being monitored through the system established two years ago, which includes main watercourses. Biomonitoring comprises detailed analysis of phytobenthos, zoobenthos, periphyton, fish population, macrovegetation along a shoreline.

Forest ecosystems are in the scope since NEAP was finished for one of its main targets was forest ecosystem management based upon the sustainable development's doctrine. Faculty of Forestry has been closely monitoring state of forest ecosystems through a several projects (Certification of forests in BiH) which is of major importance for BiH because about 50% of its territory is covered with diverse types of woods.

Although dry and sub-humid land are considered to be priority from scientific point of view, because it supports diversity of life including many endangered, endemic and rare species (Orchidaceae), there isn't on national level any kind of programme whose target would be exclusively this type of land.

Agricultural Institute of Republic of Srpska from Banja Luka has carried out study on land use (2003) which was funded by FAO? Product of the study was a set of GIS maps. Invasive species are being monitored to limited extent.

Further comments on implementation of this Article

Inland water ecosystems are currently submitted to the biomonitoring as a part of international project involving BiH, Croatia and Serbia. All actions are well co-ordinated including harmonized methodology which is fulfilled through the organizing of regional workshops and meetings. Project has been evaluated with the highest score on the basis of its excellent results achieved by now. Besides, sustainable use of inland waterbodies in BiH is being secured thanks to the Fishery Economic Evaluation Studies which have been done for major watercourses in the country, since the end of the war, and represent an important contribution to the development of sustainable practice in BiH.

Further comments on implementation of this Article

National focal points for diverse Conventions closely collaborate with each other thanks to the fact that they are being employed by the same agencies or institutions and involved in the same projects, both national and international, exchanging informations on undertaken actions, work progress and co-ordinating their further steps.

However, implementation process itself wouldn't be possible without significant financial support provided by foreign agencies, such as UNDP/UNEP/GEF/World Bank/Council of Europe and many others.

There is in some aspects excellent co-operation with neighbouring countries realized through the exchange of experiences, case-studies and national strategies, but without any kind of joint actions undertaken in this regard.

Further comments on implementation of this Article

In BiH doesn't exist co-ordinated information collection and management at the national level because of institutional framework weaknesses. As mentioned before, country is divided into three functional units that more or less function independant of each other. But, on the other hand, there is firm co-operation with other Contracting Parties in the region on joint pilot project aimed to promote trans-boundary biodiversity management. Major proportion of these projects and its goals were made available on the internet, such is the case of Skakavac Ecosystem Services Assessment, Evaluation of natural values of Bijambare, Study on biodiversity state of mountains Igman and Bjelasnica, Integrated management of Sava river Basin, Assessment of natural values of Brcko District, Bimonitoring of Sava river watershed - hardcopy of obtained results distributed among participating parties.

Further comments on implementation of these decisions

Taxonomic kind of researches possess long tradition in BiH which was brought to existence by scientists working for National Museum and Institute of Biology at Faculty of Science. The Museum was established at the end of 19th century and employed in the field of taxonomy highly educated personal at the time. Its tradition has been continued through the entire 20th century and improved by young scientist that have brought along new trends in modern taxonomy. On the other hand, Institute of Biology was much younger institution but equally significant in the field of taxonomic investigation. Unfortunately, the Institute ceased to exist during the civil war which happened in the 90ties in BiH. For the same reason, many records from aforementioned institutions were destroyed or lost and major proportion of scientists have left the country. Those events have caused a gap in knowledge transfer and left the country with fragmented taxonomic records. Due to the fact that post-war socio-economic situation didn't allow major investment in the new researches, state of taxonomy in BiH is currently highly degraded one. Not to mention lack of scientific co-operation between the institutions belonging to different entities within the country, which makes the situation even more complex.

Further comments on implementation of this Article

Within the NEAP, in the chapter Measures, stressed was the necessity for creation of legislative framework in terms of biodiversity protection and the assessment of current state of flora and fauna in BiH. Unfortunately, this can be described as an insufficient effort for it hasn't been followed by concrete actions. Implementation process is slowed down due to lack of adequate capacities. Moreover, some progress has taken place, for it was completed the second project phase of "Establishment of Emerald Network in BiH" which was funded by the Council of Europe (November, 2006). In the course of it recognized were Areas of Special Conservation Interest (ASCI) whereby into consideration were taken populations of endemic and/or endangered species, both flora and fauna. Project has stretched over two years and gathered scientists from the entire BiH. Designation of ASCI's was connected with the assessment of human activity impacts onto considered area. Hence, some experiences in this regard were obtained.

Further comments on implementation of this Article

The Article hasn't been considered as a national priority so far, but one can notice lately that it is getting more and more in the focus (after NEAP, Third national report and related programmes or action plans were completed). Crucial role thereby have played Local Environmental Action Plans (LEAP) that have been developed for six municipalities on the territory of BiH in the last several years. Besides, one should mention considerable NGO's efforts by whom was pointed out necessity to maintain traditional knowledge and practice (Green Visions and many other NGO's). Through numerous local projects NGO's arose public awareness and contributed to the implementation of the Article. This could help to prevent further depopulation of rural or remoted areas in BiH.

Institute for genetic Engineering and Biotechnology situated at Sarajevo is the institution involved in ex-situ conservation of some endemic species of ichthyofauna and vascular flora. Some endemic species have been studied and submitted to ex-situ conservation in the framework of master degree or PhD thesis. Significant role in terms of ex-situ conservation in BiH plays National Museum, its section of Botany and Zoology. As stated before this institution possesses long tradition of taxonomic investigation, both of flora and fauna, which includes the relevant collections of plants and animals (Herbarium of National Museum comprise over 4000 plant species divided in more than 150 000 sections). Besides, there is a Botanical garden which used to encompass over 3000 plant species before the war.

In term of the Decision V/24 developed were following indicators on the ecosystem level:

- General state of ecosystem
- Ecosystem carrying capacity
- Level of threats toward ecosystem

which were applied in the process of evaluation of natural values for adverse areas in BiH which was done in order to designate them as a protected area (after IUCN categorization). Sector involved in the implementation process was forestry, for forestry enterprises are in charge for the management of forest ecosystems.

Comment on implementation of the Decision V/25:

There have been carried out pilot projects regarding sustainable tourism funded by Japanese embassy and/or government (cities in focus were Jajce and Mostar).

Please use this box to identify what specific activities your country has carried out as a DIRECT RESULT of becoming a Contracting Party to the Convention, referring back to previous questions as appropriate:

Administrative framework and legislative of the BiH isn't unified at the state's level being therefore major obstacle to the implementation of any international document. Moreover, some steps forward have been done in terms of regional cooperation which is being confirmed by many successfully completed projects in the previous period. There was some progress made regarding the capacity building and development of the effective operative system. More progress is to be expected after NBSAP is done and placed in force, which should happen in 2008. In general, since it became a Contracting Party of the Convention BiH has done as much as it was possible under its circumstances.
